

The Story of Scripture: From Perfect Beginning to Perfect Ending

Prophecy Perspectives (03.09.26)

The Bible is the only book in the world that gives the entire story of mankind from the beginning all the way to eternity. And no one but God could put all of this together—40 different human authors over 1,500 years, yet one beautiful story that fits together seamlessly. Every story has a perfect beginning, an antagonist who introduces conflict, a plot that unfolds, a climax, and a resolution. The Bible follows this exact pattern. We begin with the perfect setting in Genesis chapters 1–2. Satan arrives as the antagonist in Genesis 3. The plot is established with the promise of one from the seed of the woman who will crush the serpent’s head. The climax comes at the cross and resurrection. And you and I live right now between the climax and the final resolution—waiting for Jesus to return and bring this story to its perfect ending. You’re part of this story. You can’t opt out.
