

From War to Peace to Antichrist

Operation Epic Fury is in full swing. The Iranian military complex is being dismantled piece by piece, and 49 Iranian leaders—including the Ayatollah Khamenei—were killed in the opening salvo. It might seem strange to talk about peace in the early stages of war, but that’s exactly what many are predicting. The postwar Middle East could experience a golden age of peace unlike anything since Israel became a nation in 1948. The Abraham Accords may expand into a NATO-like Abraham Alliance. But here’s the prophetic significance: the Bible is clear that peace will precede war in the end times. Daniel 9:27 speaks of a covenant with Israel. Ezekiel 38 says Israel will be at rest before the Gog-Magog invasion. 1 Thessalonians chapter 5 warns that while they’re saying, “peace and safety,” sudden destruction will come. The sweeping peace being predicted right now could be exactly what the Antichrist builds upon when he seizes power.

In the second half of today’s program, I answer questions about whether the ten horns in Daniel and Revelation could be ten tech billionaires who give their technology to the Antichrist, why there will be no more sea on the New Earth, and what will happen to America when the Rapture removes millions of believers from our nation.
